

Quantum TicTacToe

Play TicTacToe with a twist: Either set values (up- or downspin for each player) or undo what your adversary did with Hadamard-Button. But when the game ends after some turns, the remaining uncertain values (fields not assigned to a player) will be randomly assigned.

QBits can have an up- or down spin, or are uncertain. For quantumcomputers these values can set with gates - or uncertainty restored.